HEALTHCARE ASSOCIATION OF NEW YORK STATE ANNOUNCES 2010 BOARD CHAIRMAN AND OFFICERS

ALBANY, NY — The Healthcare Association of New York State Board of Trustees has announced its Chairman for 2010: Joseph Quagliata, President and Chief Executive Officer, South Nassau Communities Hospital in Oceanside. The Board also announced its 2010 Officers.

“In these tumultuous times, with our fragile health care system facing multiple challenges and repeated funding reductions, I am confident this is the right leadership to help navigate the storm and protect the provision of health care for all New Yorkers,” commented HANYS’ President Daniel Sisto.

Officers of the Board for 2010 are:

- Chairman-Elect: Herbert Pardes, M.D., President and Chief Executive Officer, New York-Presbyterian Healthcare System, New York City
- Secretary: Joseph McDonald, President and Chief Executive Officer, Catholic Health System, Buffalo
- Treasurer: Linda Brady, M.D., President and Chief Executive Officer, Kingsbrook Jewish Medical Center, Brooklyn
- Immediate Past Chairman: David Kruczynski, President and Chief Executive Officer, Glens Falls Hospital, Glens Falls
- Past Chairman: Michael Dowling, President and Chief Executive Officer, North Shore-Long Island Jewish Health System, Great Neck
- Past Chairman: Steven Goldstein, President, Strong Memorial and Highland Hospitals, Rochester
- Past Chairman: Stanley Brezenoff, President and Chief Executive Officer, Continuum Health Partners, New York City

HANYS, the only statewide hospital and continuing care association in New York State, represents more than 550 non-profit and public hospitals, nursing homes, home care agencies, and other health care organizations.
