

Reexamining fall prevention practices during the pandemic

September 8, 2021

EQIC

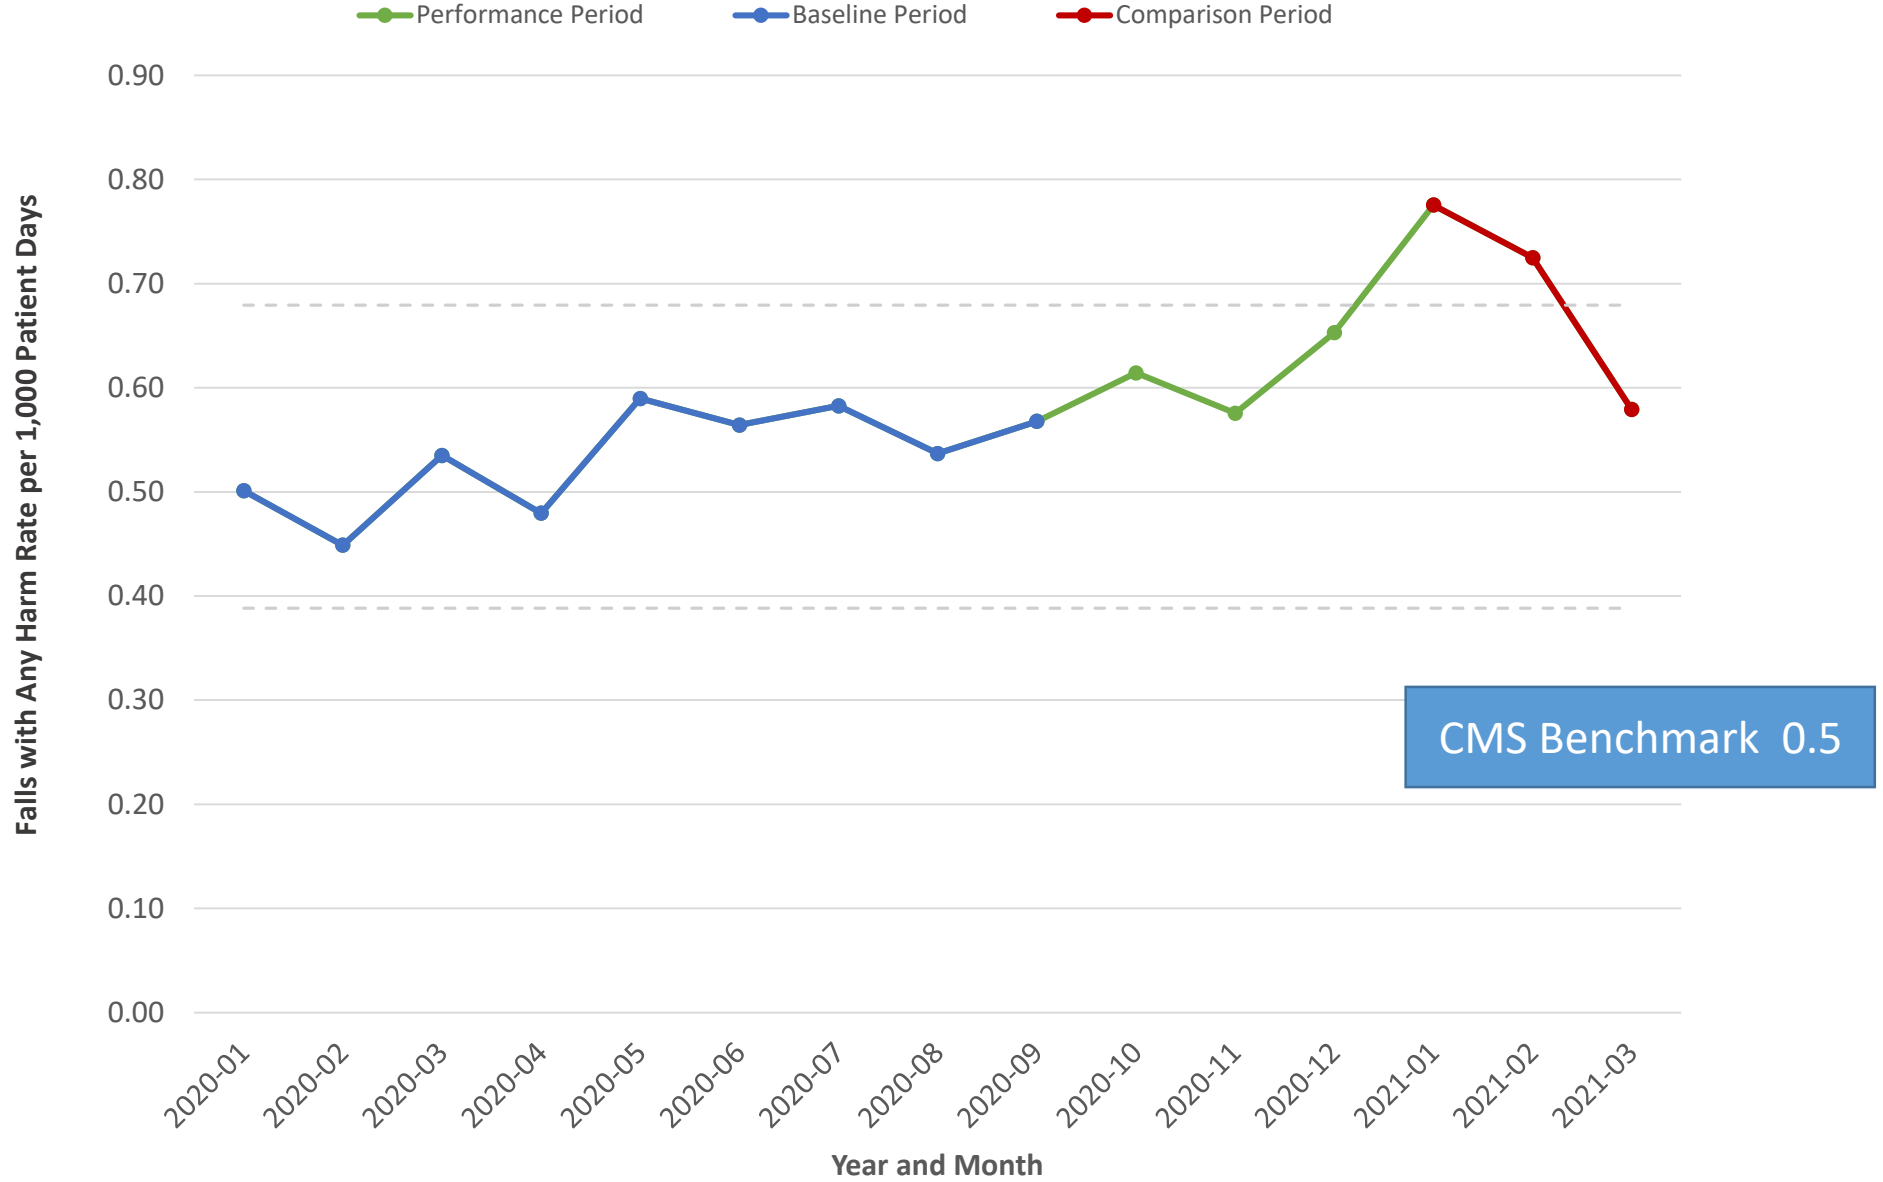

EASTERN US QUALITY
IMPROVEMENT COLLABORATIVE

Agenda

TOPIC	PRESENTER
Introduction	Deborah Tuttle, RN, MPS, CPHQ, Project Manager, EQIC
Re-engineered Fall Prevention Practices During the Pandemic: The Evidence and Lived Experiences Cottage Hospital Falls Prevention and Adaptation to Elevated Risks Geriatric Psychiatric Acute Fall Prevention Program	Pat Quigley, PhD, MPH, ARNP, CRRN, FAAN, FAANP, Nurse Consultant Tim Newton, RN, MSN, Director of Inpatient Services, Medical Surgical/ICU, Cottage Hospital Carolyn Sherman, RN, Director, Ray of Hope, Cottage Hospital
Q & A	Deborah Tuttle

Falls with Any Harm Rate per 1,000 Patient Days

Questions?

Fall prevention support

- Reach out to your hospital-assigned project manager for assistance

- EQIC website
 - Top prevention highlights – injuries from falls
 - eLearning module – New Directions in Fall and Injury Prevention
 - EQIC Falls Discovery Tool

Care partners matter

- Evidence based
 - Silvera, G, et al.
 - “Findings confirm that care partners was an important part of the care process “

- Please join us
Readmission Care Partner Sprint Kickoff
Webconference
September 23, 2021, 1-2 pm

Thank you.

Next UBS Wednesday: Pressure Injuries

October 13, 2021

1-2 pm